Langley Federal Credit Union Invests in the Community

Disaster Relief Support

The recent hurricanes in South Texas and Florida remind us that natural disasters are a part of life. The credit union has given a total of $50,000 to the American Red Cross, The Salvation Army and American Humane in support of their relief efforts in South Texas and Florida. Our hearts go out to all of the families affected in these areas.

Boys & Girls Clubs

Langley donated $10,000 and 10 refurbished PCs to the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Virginia Peninsula. The monies purchased a vehicle to transport meals and snacks to the 13 Clubs that serve over 6,000 youth each year. The PCs will be used for their high school Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics (STEM) programs.

"The Boys & Girls Clubs thank Langley for their generous financial and technology support," stated Hal Smith, Executive Director.

The Boys & Girls Club of Southeast Virginia received $10,000 to support their multiple programs that teach life skills and provide encouragement to young people.

Virginia Air & Space Center

VA Air & Space Center (VASC) received $5,000 for their STEM and other educational programs. VASC features interactive aviation exhibits spanning 100 years of flight, more than 30 historic aircraft, unique space flight artifacts and more.

Virginia Supportive Housing

Virginia Supportive Housing received $10,000 to provide supportive services to help clients remain stably housed. Services include: primary healthcare, helping to secure income, case management and counseling, skills building, substance abuse and more.

"As a result of our dual focus on affordable housing and supportive services, more than 97% of those we serve do not return to homelessness," stated VA Supportive Housing Major Gifts Officer Arden Reed.

Langley AVP of Corporate Relations Gary Hunter and VA Supportive Housing Major Gifts Officer Arden Reed.

The Mariners' Museum

The Mariners' Museum received $5,000 to update their Age of Exploration program. The program is one of the Museum's most requested and aligns with the new state social studies Standards of Learning.

Mercy Medical Angels

When Langley opened its Sandbridge Branch last spring, Mercy Medical Angels was selected as our community partner for the grand opening. Langley donated $100 for every person who became a member at the branch during the first month. We're happy to say, the organization received $4,000.

Mercy Medical Angels is a non-profit organization based in Virginia Beach that provides medical transportation - across the United States and internationally - to those who cannot afford it.

Langley for Families Foundation Donates to Community Organizations

Thomas Nelson Community College

Thomas Nelson Community College (TNCC) received $10,000 to support their Financial Literacy Workshops and to aid participating nursing students' financial needs. Nearly 50 TNCC students participated.

TNCC's Monica Pinier, M.S.E.D. accepts the check from Langley for Families Foundation representatives Robin Huxford (L) and Katherine Cash (R) with participating students.

Smart Beginnings Virginia Peninsula

Smart Beginnings Virginia Peninsula received $10,000 to support their Behavioral Intervention Team Social Emotional Services program and the 2017 Director's Academy.

"Social-emotional skills in children are the key for school readiness, and this grant will also help fund the important work of our Behavioral Intervention Team." stated Smart Beginnings Executive Director Bruce Myers.

(L-R) Langley VP of Marketing Fred Hagerman, Smart Beginnings Child Care Specialist Beverly Becker and Executive Director Bruce Myers.

ForKids, Inc.

ForKids, Inc. was awarded $5,000 for their Regional Emergency Shelter for Homeless Families program. Approximately 300 individuals from 100 families are expected to be served through the program this year.

3rd Annual Cornhole Tournament

Participants enjoy a friendly competition at the Hampton Moose Lodge #1119 to raise money for the Langley for Families Foundation.

Participants went for the toss and helped raise over $10,000 at the 3rd Annual Cornhole Tournament held in May. Registrations, donations and raffle sales helped make the event a success. We thank everyone who came out and supported our Foundation.

3rd Annual Charity Golf Classic

Eddie Spearman of ESI takes his best shot on Hole #16. Spearman won Closest to the Pin.

Golfers from around the country enjoyed a day on the Golden Horseshoe course in Williamsburg. The 3rd Annual Langley for Families Golf Classic proved once again to be one of the premier fundraising events in Hampton Roads - raising over $250,000 for Hampton Roads Charities.

Equifax Cybersecurity Incident

Equifax recently announced a cybersecurity incident that occurred from mid-May through July. This incident involved a vulnerability in one of their website applications. Equifax has reported that they have not found evidence that their consumer or commercial credit reporting databases were affected. Here's what you can do to help protect your personal account information:

- Monitor your existing credit card and bank accounts closely for charges you do not recognize.
- Check your free credit reports from Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion by visiting annualcreditreport.com. Accounts or activity that you don't recognize could indicate identity theft. Visit identitytheft.gov to find out what to do.

If you would like to read more information regarding the Equifax breach, or determine if your information was involved; please visit <https://www.equifaxsecurity2017.com> or call 866-447-7559.
